

The Associate Member Bill of Rights

As an Associate Member of Delta Chi Fraternity, you have the opportunity to participate in a number of activities that reflect these goals:

To learn more about yourself

To learn more about others

To learn the history and the goals of our Fraternity

To learn how to lead and operate a Fraternity

Choosing to join a fraternity does not relinquish your rights as an individual. As an Associate Member, you have the right:

To make your own decisions and to be yourself

To place academic pursuits before any other activities

To be treated with respect and treat others with respect

Not to participate in any activity that involves harassment or has the potential for danger

Not to be subjected to any form of hazing that includes interference with the personal liberty of others or includes any act of domination by some individuals over others that may lead to injury, emotional disturbance, physical discomfort, or humiliation.

If at any time you feel that you are being asked to participate in activities that transgress moral or ethical behavior or that lack an educational value, please contact one of the following:
